

RA1SE

RA1SE helps people ages 15-30 in Travis County who have experienced their first episode of psychosis within the past 2 years. Our Care Teams help with relationships, school, work and life goals. We bring our services to you.

RA1SE Supported Employment Services

RA1SE Supported Employment Specialists support anyone who wants to work. We help you create career plans and find jobs that match your interests.

We help with resumes and applications.

We help build relationships with employers.

We provide support during employment.

We help you reach your work goals.

For more information on employment services, email Dominique.Simmons@integralcare.org or call 512-804-3482.

RA1SE Supported Education Services

RA1SE Supported Education Specialists support you with your education. We help you set and reach your education goals.

We help you apply for financial aid.

We help you fill out college applications.

We help you prepare for the GED.

We help you register for classes.

We help you look for internships and training programs.

We support students with unique needs.

For more information on education services, email Dominique.Simmons@integralcare.org or call 512-804-3482.

If you have concerns about our services or staff, please contact us at feedback@integralcare.org or at 512-440-4086.